UNITED NATIONS ANGOLA VERIFICATION MISSION

Report of the Secretary-General

Addendum

1. In my report to the Security Council of 25 May 1993 (S/25840), I indicated in paragraph 37 that the preliminary cost estimates for the interim extension of UNAVEM II based on a reduction in the military, police and political personnel would be provided in an addendum to the report.

2. Should the Security Council approve my recommendation for a two-month interim extension of UNAVEM II, on the reduced basis, and in a manner which would respond to the evolution of the military and political situation, it is estimated that the total cost would amount to $3,659,000 gross for the two-month period, from 1 June to 31 July 1993. The reduced Mission will be made up of 40 international civilian staff, 50 military observers, 18 police observers, 11 medical and 75 local staff. A breakdown of the estimated cost by main categories of expenditure is provided for information purposes in the annex to the present addendum.

3. It would be my recommendation to the General Assembly, should the Security Council decide to approve my recommendation, that the costs relating thereto should be considered an expense of the Organization to be borne by Member States in accordance with Article 17, paragraph 2, of the Charter of the United Nations and that the assessments to be levied on Member States should be credited to the UNAVEM special account.
